In the words of the homepage, "a daily reflection will be provided during this season to help us 'prepare ourselves for the celebration of the saving Death and Resurrection of Jesus and remember our own death from the world and resurrection to the new life of Baptism. These reflections provide forty windows into this holy season sharing 40 different thoughts, feelings and prayers from across the length and breadth of the Church as we walk together towards the cross and new light of Easter" Please visit the blog at www.40days2014.com
