Outing to Harvington Hall, Kidderminster. Melton Mowbray parish recently hosted a talk on priests' holes by Michael Hodgetts, who is the leading expert on this subject. At the talk, there was interest in an outing to this fascinating Elizabethan house, which is full of ingenious secret hiding places. As Historical Director, Michael Hodgetts has offered to show us round, and we are planning to run a coach, from Melton picking up in Leicester, provisionally on Thursday 23 October. The fare will depend on numbers, but may be about £12-£13, and if enough people book we could let children travel free. If you might be interested, without obligation at present, please phone Frances on 07790 631635, or email joycejenkins29@gmail.com.

Furniture Needed We have a new family who have moved into St Mary's with St Paul's parish, they are asking if anyone can help them out with basic household furniture as they have very little. So if you have a spare dining table and chairs, cushions and such like, then please contact Eusebius on 07448426710
