This Christmas Fr David would like to thank:

The Clergy, Fr Bill, Deacon Anthony and Fr John, for all their work. He would also like to thank (in no particular order and from all three Churches) the Altar servers, the cleaners, the readers, the flower arrangers, the money counters, the music people (from musicians to button pressers etc), the Children's liturgy catechists, the first holy Communion Catechists, the youth group leaders, the soup kitchen people, all those who look after the buildings and grounds of the churches, our wonderful nuns, finance people (those who keep the books and finance committee), our extra-ordinary ministers of holy communion, our welcomers, sacristans, lift givers, welcomers, our "Crossing the Threshold" team, the tea and coffee makers, linen washers, our PPC members, and of course all those who faithfully pray for the work of the parish, and contribute to its upkeep with your regular giving, those of you who come to mass week by week without fail, and put Our Lord Jesus Christ in the first place in your lives.

MOST OF ALL a big thank-you to all those he has forgotten to thank!

He'd love to buy you all a big thank-you present... but as you will realise he genuinely can't as there are just too many of you, but give yourselves a big pat on the back, and have a very blessed, holy and merry Christmas.
